ADDITIONAL PROBATION TERMS

The Defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, business or place of employment to a search conducted by a United States Probation or Pretrial Services Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of probation. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The Defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

Based upon the Defendant's physical condition, no community service is imposed.

The Defendant shall participate in a program of testing and if necessary treatment for substance abuse, said program approved by the probation officer until such time as the Defendant is released from the program by the Court. Further, the Defendant shall be required to contribute to the costs of services for any such treatment in an amount determined by the probation officer but not to exceed the actual cost. The Defendant shall submit to one drug urinalysis within 15 days after being placed on supervision and at least two periodic tests thereafter.

The Defendant shall not consume alcoholic beverages.

The Defendant shall forfeit to the United States all properties outlined in the forfeiture allegations to the extent they apply to him.

The Court finds that the Defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine and therefore no fine is imposed in this case.

Defendant shall pay to the United States the mandatory Special Assessment of $100, which shall be paid to the United States District Court Clerk forthwith.

These conditions are in addition to any other conditions imposed by this Judgment.

Upon finding of a violation of probation or supervised release, I understand that the Court may (1) revoke supervision, (2) extend the term of supervision, and/or (3) modify the conditions of supervision.

All of the conditions listed in this order have been read to me. I fully understand the conditions and have been provided with a copy of them.
